

Kathryn (Katie) Neeland, a native of Thompson, CT, teaches all dance disciplines with emphasis in ballet and modern dance. She's studied dance at Adelphi University, Boston College and earned a BFA degree in Dance Studies at the University of South Florida. For over 15 years she has performed and choreographed earning recognition as both a teacher, choreographer and performer. While attending college, Katie danced in Body & Soul Dance Company of Tampa, FL and taught a dance curriculum in the public schools. She's been privileged to work with Karla Wolfangle, Ronald K. Brown, and Michael Foley. Currently, Katie resides in Bellingham, Massachusetts with her husband and three children. She is excited to share her passion with the next generation!

"My philosophy as a teacher is to engage, challenge and encourage dancers to gain technical excellence while expressing themselves through the vehicle of dance. "

"Dance is the hidden language of the soul." Martha Graham
