

Lindsey Klein is originally from Boston, MA. She graduated with her BFA from The University of the Arts in Philadelphia, PA. She has studied and performed with companies and artists such as Roni Koresh/Koresh Dance, Michael Susten and Company and Philadanco. Other work has included numerous TV/Film and print work credits for networks including ABC, NBC, and TLC as well as Walt Disney World Resorts and Toronto School for Circus Arts where she has become certified in Aerial gymnastics. Lindsey has traveled to Europe, South America, and Hawaii with Norwegian Cruise Lines where she served as dance captain, performing in shows created by directors such as Rachelle "SAS" Rak and Tiger Martina. Lindsey has traveled the U.S adjudicating and directing with several competitions. Most recently, Lindsey has been hired to teach at Dean College located in Franklin, MA. Known throughout New England for her contemporary and jazz master classes, Lindsey's students and choreography have received national level recognition.