

Jennifer Campanaro resides in Bellingham with her husband Mike and 2 boys, Nicholas and Timothy. Jenn began training as a gymnast at a young age. She is an accomplished former gymnast who has won numerous awards and state titles. She enjoys teaching and has the unique ability to break down the full skill to individual skills. She has been teaching gymnastics / acrobatics for over 30 years, 10 years with the Express family. In addition to her recreational acrobatic students; her guidance and outstanding instruction has helped to develop our acrobats on our award-winning EDA Team.
