

Erin Pelletier Fort grew up in North Attleboro, MA and dedicated much of her young life to dance, spending most of her time in the studio. In 2006, she received her BFA degree in dance from The University at Buffalo. While there, she worked with many prestigious groups, including Martha Graham Dance Company, Gus Giordano Jazz Dance Chicago, Doug Varone and Dancers, the traveling company for Fosse, and several more. After graduating, Erin joined the Boston area modern dance company, Dance Currents Inc. helmed by Kathy Hassinger. She performed with them for two years before dedicating her time to teaching. Erin has been instructing and choreographing at studios in the Massachusetts area for 11 years. She teaches all ages and levels, loving to work with every type of dancer. Her competitive teams have won numerous awards, including top overall scores, choreography awards, and special recognitions. This year will be Erin's first year with Express Dance and Acrobatics and she couldn't be more excited!
