

ERIN FORT

Growing up locally in Eastern Massachusetts, Erin has been dancing since she was just 4 years old. Throughout her studio years, Erin won numerous awards regionally and nationally when performing in competitive pieces, including several high overall scores and judges awards.

Erin later graduated from SUNY Buffalo with a BFA in Dance. While attending college she had the opportunity to work with many prestigious troupes and choreographers, including the Martha Graham Dance Company, Doug Varone & Dancers, and the cast of the traveling production of Fosse. She was even hand selected for a special guest piece choreographed and set by Bill Evens in the dance company bi-yearly show.

Since college, Erin has focused mainly on her teaching career and choreography skills. She specializes in Musical Theater style dance, Jazz and Lyrical Jazz. In her career so far, Erin's pieces have received several overall scores, special awards, title wins and choreography awards both regionally and nationally.
