

Tracey Elliott – Tracey began cheerleading at a young age and has over 20 years of experience working with children, including more than 19 years as a cheerleading coach. Prior to joining the Express family in 2014, Tracey was the varsity cheer coach at Hopedale High School for three years, the varsity coach at Holliston High School for two years and the varsity coach at Fontbonne Academy in Milton, MA (her alma mater) for two years. Most recently Tracey was named varsity cheer coach for Bellingham High School commencing with the Fall 2016 season. Tracey also has over five years of experience coaching an all-star team based out of Plainville, a co-ed senior division team she built from the ground up which earned a bid to UCA Nationals in 2008 and was chosen to participate in the New England Patriots pre-game show at Gillette Stadium on opening night of the 2005 NFL season. Tracey has volunteered to help coach area Pop Warner/AYC cheerleading teams for the better part of nine years, most recently serving as Cheer Coordinator of the Bellingham Pop Warner/AYC cheer programs from 2013 – 2016. In addition, she has been brought in to help train a number of local area high school cheerleading teams, including Bishop Feehan, King Philip and Bellingham. Tracey earned her BA in Sociology from Framingham State College in 2004. She lives in Bellingham with her husband Scott, daughters Madison and Miley (both ECF cheerleaders) and their goldendoodle Daisy. The best part about coaching for Tracey is making a difference in kids' lives by pushing them to reach their fullest potential and helping build their self-confidence.
